Continuing to Lead More on Your Leadership Journey!

Whether you are working full time or part time, thinking of starting a new company or retired - if you want to continue learning about the issues that are impacting our nation and the planet in general, this is your program.

Structured as a 'casual' learning environment, Leadership Encore brings together other senior-level women from a broad range of professional, cultural, and personal backgrounds to interact with other influential women in different environments.

The 2022 Program - Sante Fe

Your Leadership Encore experience will include one virtual session prior to your trip, four days / three nights in Sante Fe, New Mexico and one follow-up virtual session afterward.

Included are the program hotel costs, programming materials, most meals and on-site activities - all for just $1,896 (based on double occupancy; single occupancy is $2,271). Participants are responsible for travel to/from the session cities and all airport transfers.
